The father of two English girls, who are supposed to have been abducted from their homes in London by Mormon emissaries and taken to Salt Lake City for use in the harem, advertises a reward of $240 for their recovery. EDITORIAL NOTES.

There is perhaps going to be another judicial farce in relation to the Chinese women found on board one of the sea tramps which has just come into port, says the San Francisco Bulletin. There will be a solemn investigation as to their character under the coolie act. Any desired number of Chinese perjurers will come forward to prove that they are of the highest respectability. The court will take no notice of the fact that the married ladies before it do not know their husbands when they see them. The fact that mothers have no memory of the early days of their daughters will be lightly passed over. The whole batch will be discharged as injured matrons and maidens, and will march from the court straight to the vile dens prepared for them; whereas Ah Sin's face will be wreathed in that smile so "childlike and bland," for which he is celebrated.

If R. M. Daggett goes to the Sandwich Islands he will have a fine chance to distinguish himself by overhauling the outrageous system of peonage which now exists there. If he does condemn it, he will be at loggerheads with the king, who is wholly controlled by the planters, from whom he derives nine-tenths of his income.

During the session of the Los Angeles Democratic Convention, some of the delegates went to Judge Ross and offered to sell out to him, whereupon that gentleman indignantly informed them that he was not buying cattle this season.

The House of Representatives will pay thousands of dollars for rum and cigars and other expenses for a jamboree at a funeral, but when money is needed for imperative necessities they are as close-fisted as a rag-picker.

E. C. Ingersoll, counsel for plaintiff in the Christianity divorce suit, has been pronounced insane and taken to the asylum. The testimony in the case was enough to set any man distracted.

President Villard has issued an order that hereafter there shall be sold to no person more than 160 acres of the Northern Pacific lands.

Guineau has but a few more days to live, and puts in his time thinking of where he will spend the Fourth of July.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.
EASTERN.
THE FAMOUS MRS. STAGG.
An Incomplete Sketch of a Woman Once Noted in San Francisco.

[The following sketch of a notorious woman of fashion comes in the GAZETTE's dispatches from New York today in a mixed-up condition. The first part of the dispatch is missing, but there is evidently a cause for its transmission across the continent. The persons mentioned are all well known to San Franciscans.—ED. GAZETTE.]

About 1870 Cornelius Stagg owned race horses and ran a hotel known as the Ocean View House, situated among hills beyond the Mission and near the great Pacific. He was well-to-do and growing richer daily. His wife was a Miss Josephine Webb. She lived a short time with his mother and then in a cottage he had built for her on the grounds adjoining his hotel. Mrs. Stagg soon became one of the familiar figures of San Francisco. She was a big, dashing woman, with a free manner and independent spirit. Her extravagances became common talk. Her dressmakers and milliners' bills were worthy of a princess and she squandered money right and left in every way—she drove a fast team, dashing the effete services of a coachman, and visited the restaurants of San Francisco alone or in company with a female companion, with a lordly disregard for the conventional usages of society.

The only rival Mrs. Stagg possessed in her financial freedom was the then notorious Percy Bell, who never wore a dress which did not come from Worth's and whose backers were the dissipated parvenus who formed the bonanza and the California bank clique. Indeed, their rivalry advanced to that length that they came to blows over a champagne table at the Ocean View House, where Percy Bell was an occasional visitor, as was reported in the California papers at the time. On this occasion it was said the floor was strewn with the MAGNIFICENT DIAMONDS, torn by the irate Mrs. Stagg from the demi-monde's opulent person, and only the interposition of the servants saved the belligerents from mutilation for life. She was always surrounded by a retinue of male admirers with whom she breakfasted, lunched, dined, drove and went to the theater, with a most unconventional disregard for the existence of Stagg. Whenever that person expostulated there was a row. Indeed Mrs. Stagg would develop her pugnaic instincts on the slightest provocation. On one occasion, as the story goes, returning from a drive with a gentleman friend, her husband remarked as he met her at the door, that she had kept dinner waiting, whereupon she promptly drew a silver dagger which she used as a pin, from her hair and stabbed him in the cheek. In spite of all this and the embarrassments her extravagance plunged him into, the RESORTED HOTEL-KEEPER prolonged his connection with her for six years. By this time he was practically beggared. She had in the meantime made the acquaintance of a young Englishman of good family named Morrison, whose parents had sent him to America to break off involvements his disquisitions had imposed on him in England. Morrison introduced her to another Briton, Mr. Hawkes. When the crash came in Stagg's affairs Morrison had been recalled to England by his family, but Mr. Hawkes was in San Francisco, and in his company Mrs. Stagg left the now

USELESS CORNELIUS To his fate. They were next heard of as residing as man and wife in New York. Mr. Hawkes a couple of years ago purchased the old Schuyler mansion at Saratoga as a summer residence. Many Californians fell in with their touring trips to the east in New York and at the watering places. They lived in fine style and spent money lavishly. According to Mrs. Hawkes her husband left her to go to Canada on a fishing excursion. Cornelius Stagg is still doing a modest business at the Ocean View House. He was once a traveling salesman for a Sacramento house. He was known as an ardent turfman and always on the square.

THE HARBOR APPROPRIATION BILL. WASHINGTON, June 17. Representative Berry endeavored to have the appropriation for the Sacramento and Feather rivers increased from $250,000 to $500,000. He made a strong presentation of the case, showing how, through the process of hydraulic mining in the mountains, the channels of these rivers were rapidly filling up. Representative Page read a telegram from H. L. Smith, secretary of the Board of Trade, with a copy of resolutions of the Board, representing the great importance of the protection of these rivers to the agricultural and commercial interests, and urging that action was necessary to prevent great injury. He also stated that the action of the Legislature of California in appropriating half a million dollars for this purpose, had been declared unconstitutional. The House refused to agree to the increase almost unanimously.

After a continuous session of eight hours the House to-night passed the river and harbor bill by a vote of 119 to 41. Holman of Indiana moved to reduce the appropriation for California rivers to $100,000, on the ground that the engineer's report only asked that sum, and because he was opposed to appropriating money to improve California rivers by keeping California people from filling them up by hydraulic mining.

Chairman Page opposed Holman's amendment. He said the engineer had made a supplemental report asking for $517,000 for the improvement and protection of these rivers, and called attention to the fact that from the process of hydraulic mining carried on in the mountains during the past thirty years the channels of these rivers have been gradually filled up.

Representative Berry said if something were not done the upper bay of San Francisco would be soon destroyed. He quoted extracts from opinions of prominent engineers to show that if this process of hydraulic mining were to be allowed to go on there would soon be nothing left of rivers but a channel to drain water sheds. After a few words in addition by Mr. Page, in which he heartily endorsed Berry's statements, though as Chairman of the committee opposing the proposition to increase the bill, the amendments were voted down, and the item appropriating $517,000 passed.

As chairman of the commerce committee in charge of the bill Page has had a difficult task and has displayed considerable ability in securing the speedy passage of this bill. Although larger by six million than any river and harbor bill ever brought into the House, it occupied in its passage only three days, including one day for debate, and this is unprecedented.

A Terrible Tornado. St. Louis, June 18.

The loss in East St. Louis by last night's storm was about $50,000. Houses, wires, stock, mills, etc., suffered. There was a fearful tornado at Kansas City. The wires are all down. Two men were killed; loss, $300,000. Leavenworth also reports a terrible storm. Five ladies were killed in one house and great damage done. The steamer Blue Lodge, owned at Lacrosse, worth $10,000, sank on the Illinois shore; total loss. Steamer Champion, belonging to Captain Woodward, was sunk off the Garfield dump at East St. Louis; worth $10,000; total loss. Captain Silver's two boats were damaged $1,000 to $1,500, other losses make the aggregate on the river $25,000.

CAIRO, Ill., June 19. A heavy wind and rain storm this afternoon did much damage to buildings and crops. One person was killed at Metropolis and the steamer Jennie Walker sunk.

THE CHICAGO RACES.

CHICAGO, June 18. The Driving Park has arranged a match race between St. Julien and Trinkett, to be trotted Thursday, July 20th, during the regular meeting, for a special purse of $2,500, both to go to sulky. St. Julien to draw not to exceed 25 pounds more than Trinkett. The exact handicap is not yet fixed, but is left for Secretary Hall to decide after seeing the animals tried. Both are said to be in excellent condition. The Chicago Driving Park running meeting, which begins next Saturday, promises well. Indications are of a large attendance from all parts of the country. About 200 horses are now on the grounds, including the California stables and one from Winnipeg.

THE STRIKERS' DEMONSTRATION.

PITTSBURGH, June 17. The labor demonstration of to-day, though not as successful in point of numbers as it would have been if the weather had been propitious, was still large enough to satisfy those who admire a procession more on account of its numerical display than for its ornamental features, and was fully up to expectations. The number of men in line is variously estimated at 30,000 to 30,000. The Greenback candidate for Governor, Thomas Armstrong, had a prominent place in the procession. The streets were crowded with spectators. There was a hard rain and thunder-storm during the march.

Guineau's Appeal.

WASHINGTON, June 19. Justice Bradley of the United States Supreme Court, to whom Guineau's counsel applied for a writ of habeas corpus to-day filed a denial of the application with the clerk of the Court. Justice Bradley held that the Judge of the Court of the District of Columbia has full jurisdiction in the case, and no reason exists for granting the writ.

Encouraging the Ladies.

St. Louis, June 19. The Parnell Land League has passed resolutions of sympathy and encouragement to the Ladies Land League of Cleveland in their trouble with Bishop Gilmore.

Twelve Days More.

WASHINGTON, June 19. Guineau has 19 days more to live. The assassin has as yet shown no fear of meeting death, although it is expected by the jail officials that he will break down at the last moment. Ten murderers have been hung at the jail since it was built and only one of them showed any signs of fear at the scaffold. The fact that Guineau has shown himself to be a consummate coward is the reason why the jailor believes he will break down before the execution takes place. He is inclined to be serious, and indulges in no bravado, but says he has not abandoned the hope that the President will relieve him. The prisoner is under surveillance day and night, and no one is allowed to speak with him, excepting his counsel and Dr. Hicks, the clergyman.

FOREIGN.

Egypt. BERLIN, June 19. The England and France promised conference on Egyptian affairs meets on the 23d at Constantinople, meanwhile the Khedive, Dervish Pasha and Arabi Pasha promise to maintain order.

CAIRO, June 19. Arabi Pasha, presenting prizes to the pupils of the Italian college, said public security would be guaranteed. Batteries have arrived at Alexandria on night trains during the past few days.

An Irish Arrest.

LONDON, June 19. Thomas Walsh, an Irishman in the tenement house in Clerkenwell where ammunition and fire-arms were seized, has been arrested. From the fact that he has assisted emigrants to America, it is inferred that he is connected with parties in the United States. Since Walsh's arrest another 5,000 rounds of ammunition have been seized at his residence at Hatton Garden.

A German Officer Bribe.

LONDON, June 19. A correspondent at Berlin says: Herr Maeling, one of the principal navigators in the German navy, has been arrested at Kiel on a charge of having accepted a bribe of 150,000 rubles to deliver to the Russian Government copies of plans of all works of defense on the German coast.

WESTERN.

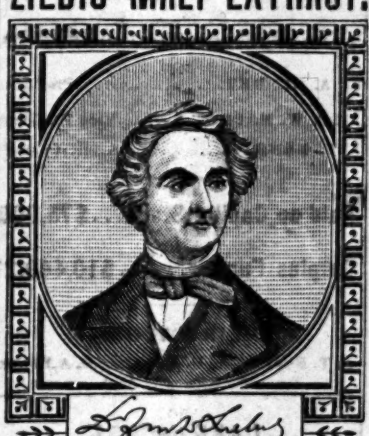

The Democratic Convention.

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 19. Delegates are gathering. The talk is that Hearst's slate is broken, and Johnson stands to win. It seems to be settled that Boggs will be chairman.

Assessment.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19. Eureka Tunnel has been assessed 25 cents.

IN THE SIERRAS.

The Lumbermen Getting Down to the Season's Work.

EMIGRANT GAP, June 16, 1882.

ED. GAZETTE: Spring has come at last. The Texas mill, owned by Towle Bros. and the Tunnel mill owned by Friend & Terry, got up steam this week and are doing good work. The two mills have on hand from last year about 1,700,000 to haul out and ship. The Tunnel mill to day cut 32,116 feet. It has been overhauled and put in complete order and is now putting in its best ticks. Avery & Chinn will start their mill in a few days. They have moved it to a large and splendid body of timber, hence the delay in getting up steam.

D. Caffyn, proprietor of the Emigrant Gap Hotel, has got through repainting and furnishing his hotel and other buildings. Everything in and around the place is now in apple-pie order (which means that he has as good accommodations as any house on the Sierras).

Mr. C. S. Clark accidentally stuck the corner of an ax into his shin, cutting a deep and ugly gash. He will be laid up for some time.

Stock passes daily on their way over the mountains. "Wagons and women" are put aboard the cars and shipped to Truckee.

The weather has been cool and cloudy, with frequent showers, during the past ten days.

A Good Prospect.

M. Raphael of Wadsworth, well known in Reno, writes to a friend of a big strike in his mines at Downieville, Nye county, Nevada, of which mention was made in the GAZETTE last week, the developments showing an ore body estimated to be worth $250,000. The property comprises six mining claims. The ore is lead, with iron gangue, carrying, also, some horn silver. They smelt with unusual facility. There is a superabundance of wood and water convenient and accessible. This camp has a large territory to draw upon, abounding in mines in which dry ores prevail, accompanied with quartz, which is of great advantage in reduction. Mr. Raphael is the principal owner of the property, in which P. Downie & Brothers have also an interest, being the original locators. Mr. P. Rosier, lately with the Richmond, of Eureka, is foreman of the mine.

California Horses.

The Chicago races will commence at the Driving Park in that city June 27th. During the meeting the following well-known California flyers will be turned loose: Winters' Duchess of Norfolk and, from Lucky Baldwin's stable, Clara D. Sunday, Gano, Lucky B. and Grismer. The eastern people are not underrating the Duchess. The first race she is entered for is one mile and a furlong, and is filled with 33 entries. The California beauty is the favorite in the pools. In the other race of one and a quarter miles there are 40 entries and she is the first choice of eastern pool buyers in that also. The little mare will surely make a brilliant record.

The Comstock Conjurer.

Dan De Quille said in the Enterprise yesterday morning that there were signs of rain in the air, though no clearer morning was ever seen, and recommended that folks attending the picnic provide themselves with umbrellas. As soon as the party started, Dan went to work with his incantations and hocus-fobbi ceremonies to conjure up a first-class thunder-shower. He succeeded in his diabolical design, and at 4 o'clock there fell a copious rain.

Is There a Boom in It.

George D. Roberts, the mining expert and well known capitalist, has returned from the Eastern States by the Southern route, and is now in San Francisco. John W. Mackay and Senator Fair are on their way home to Nevada, and James R. Keene will turn up on the Pacific coast pretty soon. Don't it sort of look as if the big-bugs were about to "whoop her up" for a Comstock boom? It is to be hoped that this gathering of the great leaders will not end in wind.

A Boy's Leg Broken.

Saturday afternoon a little son of Thomas O'Hearn, who keeps the toll-gate on the Dayton road, had his left thigh broken by one of the hind wheels of a wood wagon passing over it. He also sustained an injury of the left arm. Although the fracture of the thigh is a serious one, the little fellow—he is about 10 years of age—will, doubtless, come out all right in due time. The broken bone was set by Dr. Harris of Virginia.

Eureka Mines.

From 1873 to January, 1882, the gross ore product of Eureka District amounted to about $40,000,000. From 1880, when ore began to be produced in the district, up to 1873, at least $10,000,000 worth of ore was taken out of the various mines then being developed, so that the total gross ore product of Eureka District from 1869 up to January last may be set down within safe limits at $50,000,000.

THE TURN-VEREIN PICNIC.

Reno's Champion Marksman Wins a Prize and Endangers the Lives of All in the Vicinity.

About 60 Renosites went to Carson yesterday to attend the Turner's picnic, where they met 300 or 400 from Virginia and a large number of Carsonites. The Society took great pains to entertain their friends and succeeded, for everyone present seemed to enjoy themselves highly. The shooting was a very interesting feature of the day's sport. The Reno team was there, and everybody knew it. The team was made up of the best rifle shots on the coast, and it is said that Judge Gilderalee, of New York, offered every inducement to the gentlemen composing the Reno team yesterday to go with him to England several years ago, to represent America hunting the English bullseye. The boys made the following

REMARKABLE SCORE:

Lindsay... 4 5 4 8 3 4 4 8 2—38
Teasland... 3 4 4 8 3 4 4 4 3—34
Loomis... 3 0 4 4 4 4 5 2 4—32
Perkins... 3 2 0 0 2 3 3 4 4—24
Bragg... 0 0 0 2 4 0 4 0 2—12
Parker... 5 0 3 4 4 4 3 4 3—30
Evans... 3 4 4 8 3 3 5 4 2—35
Curtis... 3 4 4 8 3 4 2 0 0—27
Stoddard... 3 3 4 4 8 3 4 4—35
Henley... 3 0 3 4 4 3 4 2 0—25

Total... 286
It is needless to say that Reno "got left," and for the team, or any individual member thereof, to offer any excuse would be in very poor taste. Corporal Bragg was the only member of the team who succeeded in winning anything. He carried off the prize given by the Turn-Verein Society for the worst individual score ever made by anybody, so far as heard from, on the face of the earth. As will be seen, Bragg marked

TWELVE OUT OF A POSSIBLE FIFTY. And missed the target six times. For his skill as the worst shot in the world he was awarded a stuffed club and pounded over the head with it until he was paralyzed from the neck down. On the arrival of the train containing Bragg was received by a large, enthusiastic, but not a very select committee of citizens, who had the audacity to present him with a diagram of his target. A brief description of which may not be uninteresting to members of his company. The diagram is drawn on a very inferior quality of pasteboard, cut from the bottom of a shirt-box. In the top a hole is bored and a piece of very expensive bay rope tied in to enable the skillful marksman to wear the trophy about his neck. On the upper left-hand corner of the board is an animal perforated through the body and marked

"ONE DEAD COW."

On the opposite corner is another animal marked "another dead cow." The cows are represented as grazing on the "distant hill." The center of the diagram has one of the cleanest Creedmoor targets, bull's-eye and all, ever seen—not a mark to disfigure it. Underneath the target is a murderous-looking weapon, resembling the bass instrument of a brass band, marked, "Corporal Bragg's Trusty." At the lower left corner is a large white spot, surrounded by a dab of black ink, branded "Corporal's unerring eye," and on the opposite corner is a rough representative of Farmer Treadway's house on fire. Bragg's stuffed club might have been deservedly used on nearly every member of the team, for if a poorer lot of marksman can be found on this coast the GAZETTE would not know where to look for them.

BETTER SHOOTING.

The Carson Guard carried off the prize. Their score was as follows:
Crawford... 40 King... 41
Cheney... 44 Bicknell... 42
Cowing... 44 Little... 39
Thaxter... 42 Laing... 39
Saffie... 41 Borges... 39
Total... 411
The Washingtons made 388, and the Emmets 386. At the conclusion of the shooting Captain H. G. Parker of the Carson Guard called the Reno boys together and presented the company with a very fine snare drum. Mr. Parker made the following neat

PRESERVATION SPEECH:

Captain Moger, Captain Lindsay, Officers and Members of the Reno Guard—GENTLEMEN: The fact that I am selected by the Carson Guards to present to your company this souvenir as a token of friendship and regard, fills my very soul with joy. This is a musical instrument, calculated to inspire with military enthusiasm the breast of every son of Mars.

Shakespeare said, truly: "The man that hath no music within himself, nor is moved by concord of sweet sounds, is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils;" so we now desire you to accept this instrument of "sweet sounds," take it to the Riverside City and so use it that the denizens thereof will be so imbued with the soul of music that they will forever forget their propensity for "stratagems and spoils."

[Note—Here follows a few well chosen remarks that sounded well at the picnic and were exceedingly funny but hardly the correct thing to publish in a family newspaper.—ED. GAZETTE.]
"She once was ours, but now, with the best wishes of the old 'cow-shooters,' she's yours."

R. H. Lindsay, Captain of the Reno team, replied to Captain Parker on behalf of the company, returning thanks for the kind manner in which the team had been treated, and promising to deliver the drum to the Reno Guard, who he knew would appreciate the valuable and useful instrument. He said he hoped to have the pleasure of meeting the Carson Guard in Reno at no distant day, and gave our company's promise that they would be heartily welcomed.

Jottings.

Handsome napkins at Levy's.
About 25 car-loads of rails go through Reno daily for the Utah Northern road.

A squad of Virginia sports left for Quincy, Plumas county, this morning, to give the miners a pasteboard benefit.

The petitions for the pardon of Alf. Chartz are being generally signed elsewhere, but none have been started in Reno.

Several car loads of 12-inch pump-column, with an engine and boilers, went East last night for Park City, Utah.

Firecrackers and torpedoes at Nasby's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—72, 73, 72, 70, 71. In the sun at 3 o'clock, 78.

Buy one of the "luminous" match safes of Knowles & Bainbridge. You can find it in the dark just as well as in the light.

Now that "Needles" is doing penance in the County Jail, another calamity has befallen Reno in the shape of a drunken "corn-doctor."

The locomotive that used to be called the "Holy Terror of the C. P." has had its fiendish whistle removed and replaced by another which emits a comparatively mild howl.

POOL YOUR PATRIOTISM.

A Committee Sent from Reno to Invite the Comstockers to Come.

W. A. Walker, W. R. Chamberlain and Jerry Schooling went to Virginia to-day to confer with the Comstockers about joining Reno in a Fourth of July celebration. If the two towns pool their patriotism there will be "a royal, elegant time" here. Great preparations are being made here for the event, which will doubtless eclipse anything of the kind ever seen in Nevada. The jail will be enlarged for the accommodation of obnoxious celebrators and other things done to make the affair go off smoothly. It is to be hoped that the Comstockers will heed the Macedonian cry, "Come over and help us," and come down to Reno on the Fourth, to listen to the thunders of the mighty Truckee, get a sniff of flowers and fresh air and hear the carols of the feathered songsters in our beautiful park. A GAZETTE reporter was in Carson yesterday and learned that a great many from that town will be in Reno on the Fourth.

Copper in Demand.

It is many years since copper had such a market value as it has at present. There is any quantity of copper ore in Mono county, not more than 15 miles from Bodie. Along the face of the bluff hills looking down on Mono Lake on the west side there is an immense vein which can be traced several miles either way from the mouth of Mill Creek Canyon. Here the metal can be found in almost every form, from gossan to pure copper.

A Quiet Sabbath.

There was a graveyard quietness about Reno yesterday. The quarrelsome, noisy, bibulous element all went to Carson, leaving the respectable portion of our people to attend church and prayer-meeting, and to otherwise deport themselves as becomes Sabbath-respecting citizens who can't raise money enough to go on a jamboree.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

Scraps of News from That Camp and Vicinity.

[From the Republican of the 17th]
There is yet four feet of snow at Meadow Lake. There are but two men at work there at present.

It is rumored that Frank Panson has sold twelve hundred feet of the U. S. Grant mine at Meadow Lake to some Chicago capitalists for $12,000.

There is no snow between Cisco and Carlyle. The trail is in good condition and good time can be made either on foot or horseback.

Assessor Collins has appointed Geo. E. Marshall, O. E. Mason and W. F. Edwards deputy assessors for the registration of voters for Meadow Lake township.

The Cisco Consolidated started up the first of June and now employs five or six men taking out ore. The mill will start up in a few days.

The weather for the past three days has been the warmest we have had thus far this season. The thermometer registered 90 degrees yesterday afternoon.

Three stage loads, carrying in all 80 passengers, went up to Lake Tahoe yesterday morning. The large saratogas stacked up on the boat indicated that some of the party intend spending the Summer there.

Thirty-five men are now at work on the Fordyce dam, some six miles from Meadow Lake, and in a few days this force will be increased to one hundred men and perhaps more. This is the largest dam in the State. Its bank is now seventy-five feet high, and it backs up the water four miles. The owners have decided to build it thirty-five feet higher, and it is expected that fifteen feet of this will be built this season.

Twelve hundred pounds of Tahoe trout were shipped below by express last night. Of this amount H. D. Burton caught four hundred pounds yesterday forenoon. For the past two weeks an average of about one thousand pounds have been shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co's express at this place daily.

Plumas Items.

[From the National of the 17th]
Things are lively and the mining prospects good at Granite Basin.

Pat Bannon, a well-known crank, has been sent to the insane asylum.

Quite a grasshopper crop is reported on the Blood Ranch in Indian Valley.

Rumors tells us that a very rich chimney has been struck in the Indian Valley mine lately.

E. A. Helstead, has taken the contract to carry the mails from Oroville to this place, Greenville and Prattville.

Sierra Valley men report the finest crop of grasshoppers in sight that has been raised for years. One man told us they were "three deep, and all headed towards Kerby's."

The trial of Mrs. Hunsinger for the shooting of Philip Smith, at Taylorville, in April last, was called in the Superior Court on Wednesday, and ended yesterday. A fine of $500 was imposed and promptly paid.

A terrific rainstorm occurred to the east of us on Sunday night last, and considerable damage was done to the roads. The grades between this valley and Mohawk were filled with rocks and debris, and in many places were almost impassable. It seemed to be a cloud-burst on a small scale.

Lecture.

Rev. Father Buchard, S. J., will deliver a lecture in the Catholic Church on Sunday evening, June 25, at 7:30 P. M. Subject: "Is purgatory a Scriptural doctrine?" Admission, 50 cents.

Notice.

R. H. Lindsay requests all those who are interested in the Fourth of July singing exercises to meet him at the Baptist Church to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Smile Again on Me!

Signed Tom to his beloved. He knew not what gave her such a charm in his eyes. Her teeth, preserved by ZOZODONT which she had used from girlhood did his business. She held her lover by virtue of ZOZODONT.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low cost, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
